FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 3, Election Day Update

Lee County, FL (November 3, 2020) The Lee County Supervisor of Elections Office is aware that the second page of the ballot containing constitutional amendments is not being read by the tabulators at several precincts. We are currently investigating the issue.

Poll workers are instructing voters to place the second page of the ballot in the emergency bin of the tabulator. They will be tabulated at our tabulation center location.

The mission of the Lee County Supervisor of Elections Office is to deliver superior election services to the voters of Lee County.
