Stephanie Porvaznik is the Lee County Recipient of the 2022 Florida Supervisors of Elections Scholarship

Lee County, FL (June 17, 2022) Lee County Supervisor of Elections Tommy Doyle, is pleased to announce Stephanie Porvaznik of Florida Gulf Coast University is the recipient of the Joe Oldmixon College Scholarship awarded by the Florida Supervisors of Elections (FSE) Scholarship Foundation.

Porvaznik, a junior in college and a Political Science major, received the scholarship for her academic achievements, civic engagement, and leadership roles in the community. Earlier this year, she interned with the Florida Senate in Tallahassee and most recently completed an internship at U.S. Congressman Byron Donalds' Lee County district office.

Stephanie says, "I am thankful for the opportunity to receive the scholarship, and I am excited to represent the Florida Supervisors of Elections as I finish my senior year!"

Every year, the FSE, the statewide organization representing Florida's 67 supervisors of elections, awards four $1,200 scholarships to four Florida undergraduate students. A student must be enrolled or accepted as a full-time student in a senior college or university in Florida and must be a Political Science, Public Administration, Business Administration, Journalism, or Mass Media Communications major.

Supervisor Doyle is proud to have a Lee County student win the scholarship for two consecutive years and wishes Stephanie much success and luck in all her future endeavors.

About the FSE Scholarship Foundation

The FSE Scholarship honors three former Supervisors of Elections: Escambia County's Joe Oldmixon, Highland County's Jimmy Whitehouse, and Pinellas County's Dorothy Walker Ruggles. All of Florida's 67 counties may participate. Each County Supervisor reviews applications received and selects one finalist to send to the FSE Scholarship Committee.
