Lee County Elections Office Recognizes One-Hundred Year Old Poll Worker

Lee County, FL (March 29, 2022) Poll Worker Vera Craig has an exclusive status in Florida. She is one hundred years old and is the oldest poll worker in the state!

Lee County Supervisor of Elections Tommy Doyle recently met with the spunky centenarian at her home to honor her twenty years of service to the citizens of Lee County with a Certificate of Recognition.

Vera was also gifted an original work of art by a Cypress Lake High School student, Sarah Wright, who submitted the piece for the 2019-2020 annual Lee Elections' Arts Vote Contest. Sarah created her work to celebrate 100 years of Women's Voting, making it perfect for gifting to our 100-year-old Vera!

She has not missed an election since 2002. Not even the COVID-19 Pandemic kept her from contributing to her community in the 2020 General Election cycle!

Vera's motto is "keep busy!" She continues to live it, as she plans to work the August 23 Primary and November 8 General Election at 101! She will greet voters at the Election Center on Election Days. Her infectious laugh and big smile will undoubtedly brighten everyone she meets and help give them a superior voting experience.

You can view Vera's video on our YouTube Channel here <https://youtu.be/R53B9m6Blz4>.

The mission of the Lee County Supervisor of Elections Office is to provide the voters of Lee County with superior election services by conducting secure and accurate elections.
