The Lee County Elections Arts Vote contest showcases the artistic talent of local high school students and provides a platform for them to express their creativity while promoting the importance of voter participation and civic engagement.

"Every year, I'm overwhelmed by the talent and dedication of our Lee County students in presenting artwork for the contest," says Supervisor Doyle. "I greatly appreciate the schools for fostering voter education and the students for creating artwork that communicates the importance of voting and elections."

On Monday, April 29, Supervisor Doyle presented the winning school and students with certificates of appreciation and gift cards for their contributions to the contest. Cypress Lake High School received $500 for winning the category of "Best Artwork," and each winning student received a $100 gift card.
