Lee County Elections Begins Mailing Official Election Notices

Lee County, FL (April 29, 2024) In an effort to ensure every eligible voice is heard in the upcoming elections, the Lee County Supervisor of Elections office will begin mailing Official Election Notices \(OEN\) to approximately 428,000 active residential mailboxes throughout the county from April 29 through May 1, 2024.

An active residential mailbox, as defined for this mailing, refers to a mailbox currently receiving mail and is not in a closed, vacant, or temporarily away status.

The OEN aims to inform and engage registered voters and eligible individuals within our community. It provides essential information about the 2024 elections, including registration, important deadlines, Vote-by-Mail, and Early Voting.

“We are committed to ensuring that voters are well-informed and equipped with the necessary tools to participate in the elections process,” says Supervisor of Elections Tommy Doyle. “We encourage you to review this notice thoroughly to prepare for the upcoming primary and general election.”

For questions or assistance regarding elections, please contact the office at (239) LEE-VOTE (533-8683) or visit www.lee.vote.

Our mission is to deliver superior election services to the voters of Lee County.
