Florida's Presidential Preference Primary is a closed primary election that allows voters to vote for the candidate they want to see represent their party in the November presidential election. However, this year, only voters registered with the Republican Party will be eligible to vote in the March 19 election.

The Florida Democratic Party nominated Joseph R. Biden, Jr., as their sole candidate, and no other contests are on the ballot. Therefore, voters registered with the Democratic Party, a minor political party, or no party affiliation will not have a ballot in this election.

The mission of the Lee County Supervisor of Elections Office is to deliver superior election services to the voters of Lee County.
